As Carden, reports that children years of age pick cotton, and this state of affairs the employers want the labor and the parents want the earnings.

On the ranch there were employed sixteen, three boys and fifty girls between the ages of 8 and 18 years. The children were ignorant, uneducated, intelligent and anxious for education and as the "poor whites" these latter have large families.

They are overworked and without desire to rest themselves.

Temporary school structures in the vicinity of the cotton fields maintained by financial aid from the federal government are recommended as a partial solution of the problem.

CALL ADMIRALS IN MEDAL CASE.

Decorations Scandal Investigated

Investigator Submit List.

Summons to be First Officer to Testify.

Second "Controversial" Letter to Daniels.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—A list of admirals, headed by Rear-Admiral William S. Sims, was submitted to Secretary Daniels today.

Admiral Sims, who recently wrote Secretary Daniels, sharply criticizing the Secretary's action in changing recommendations for war honors made by commanding officers, and refusing the Distinguished Service Medal awarded him in case the lists of awards stood as announced, will be the first of the officers to testify before the subcommittee.

Secretary Daniels announced today he had received another letter of a "highly controversial" nature from Admiral Sims. The Secretary said he would not make the letter public until he had read it carefully, but that a cursory examination of its contents had convinced him that it contained general criticism of the navy's conduct of certain phases of the war.

DECKER NOT ASKED.

Surprise was expressed in naval circles tonight that the name of Rear-Admiral Decker, on duty at Key West, Fla., was not included in the list of naval officers to be called before the subcommittee.

Admiral Decker, shortly after publication of Admiral Sims' letter, declining the Distinguished Service Medal in a similar letter of refusal to Secretary Daniels, declared his services as naval attaché at Madrid during the early days of the war, practically prevented an alliance of Spain with the Central Powers.

There were indications that the commanding officers of all United States naval vessels, sunk or seriously damaged by submarine attack during the war—the award of medals to whom has entered into the controversy—would be called after the first list of witnesses had been heard.

Secretary Daniels will be given an opportunity to appear before the committee later, members said.

SEEKS LESSER HONOR.

Commander David Worth Bagley, brother-in-law of Secretary Daniels, has cabled the Navy Department requesting that his name be considered only for such decoration as was conferred upon all captains of destroyers serving in the war zone.

Commander Bagley, whose ship, the Jacob Jones, was torpedoed and sunk during the war, was recommended for a navy cross by the War Decorations Board, but Secretary Daniels awarded him the Distinguished Service Medal along with the captains of other naval ships destroyed by enemy submarines.

Commanders of destroyers serving in the war zone were awarded the Navy Cross.

CASE TO BOARD.

Secretary Daniels said today that the message would be referred directly to the Knight board, now reconsidering the whole question of naval awards, for such action as the board might see fit.

Commander Bagley, who is serving as naval attaché at The Hague, recently cabled the department that European newspapers had published statements that Rear-Admiral Sims had charged that Commander Bagley received his Distinguished Service Medal because of the favoritism of Secretary Daniels, and that the widespread publication of the report had made the continuation of the discharge of his duties as naval attaché extremely difficult and embarrassing. He requested the department to obtain a denial from Admiral Sims and to make an effort to gain widespread publicity for it.

Delegates for 13 States Meet Measures' Authors.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Views of members of manufacturers' organizations in thirteen States on pending railroad legislation were presented today by a delegation of business men to Senator Cummins and Representative Esch, authors of the Senate and House railroad bills, respectively.

While indorsing most of the provisions of the House bill, except the labor clause, the manufacturers declared in a statement that a "fundamental plan" must be added to the House measure if private operation is to be successful.

The manufacturers favored the essential features of Section 6 of the Senate bill, dealing with railroad earnings, and indorsed the rate-making rules of the bill. They also advocated establishment of adequate safeguards against possible interruption of transportation service, which they believed was contained in the Senate bill's provision for compulsory arbitration of disputes.

GOVERNOR STEPHENS IN THRIFF PROCLAMATION.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 14.—Gov. Stephens today issued a thirteenth proclamation as follows:

Whereas, a systematic practice of putting aside a certain portion of one's income to provide for the future is one of the essential elements of the highest development of citizenship; and

Whereas, much of the individual hardship and suffering is due to lack of a judicious practice of thrift;

Therefore, I, William D. Stephens, Governor of the State of California, do hereby set aside the week of January 15 to 21 as a thrift week, and urge the citizens of this State to observe the week and participate in the activities as outlined day by day, making plans for the wise method of using their incomes and to begin those habits of thrift that will ultimately provide for their future and secure the comfort and happiness of their loved ones.

WESTERN RECLAMATION UP AGAINST ECONOMY.

GOVERNORS URGING ARID LAND IRRIGATION FIND LITTLE ENTHUSIASM.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Governors of western States and representatives of the Western States Reclamation Association conferred today with Senators and representatives to urge government aid for reclamation of western arid lands.

Little encouragement was given to the delegation, which was told that the economy was being practiced by Congress, and that authorization of no new projects or large appropriations other than those absolutely necessary was contemplated.

Among those who urged Federal aid were Govs. E. B. Clegg of Utah, H. W. H. of Washington and L. B. Nichols of New Mexico. Other speakers were D. W. Davis of Idaho, chairman of the reclamation association; T. E. Campbell of Arizona, and former Senator Cator of New Mexico.

All urged passage of the bill of Senator Jones, Republican, Washington, which has been reported favorably to the Senate proposing appropriations of $250,000,000 for irrigation projects. It was suggested that if direct appropriations were not favored by Congress, a bond issue be authorized.

DENIES JEWISH POGROMS.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—Reports of pogroms against Jews in Poland were branded as false today by the Rev. Stanislaus Adamki of Posen, a leader in the Polish constitutional assembly, who is visiting in Chicago.

"The deliberately false reports of alleged pogroms where no Jew lost his life and the misrepresentation and exaggeration of occurrences which were not pogroms, but were deliberate attempts to weaken Poland and blacken the newly-freed Polish nation," he said.

A Beauty Specialist Gives Home-Made Recipe to Darken Gray Hair.

Mrs. M. D. Gillespie, a well-known beauty specialist of Kansas City, recently gave out the following statement regarding gray hair:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barb's Compound and 1/4 ounce of glycerine.

These ingredients can be purchased any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."

Look for name "Bayer" on tablets, then you need never worry.

To get genuine "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" you must look for the safety "Bayer Cross" on each package and on each tablet.

The "Bayer Cross" means true, world-famous Aspirin, prescribed by physicians for over eighteen years, and proved safe by millions for cold, headache, earache, toothache, neuritis, lumbago, neuritis and for pain in general. Proper and safe directions are in each unbroken "Bayer" package.

Handy tin boxes of 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Drugists also sell larger "Bayer" packages. Aspirin is the trademark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid.—[Advertisement.]

ARMOUR & CO. LEATHER BUSINESS SEGREGATED.

SUBSIDIARY PROPERTIES SEPARATED, AS AGREED UPON WITH GOVERNMENT.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—The directors of Armour & Co., packers, today took initial steps to segregate its leather and tanning properties in the Armour Leather Company, now forming. This was a move toward separating subsidiary business of the company in compliance with the agreement with the government.

The first subscription to the stock of the Armour Leather Company will be offered to preferred stockholders of Armour & Co., of record February 2. The directors today ordered the stock books closed from February 2 to February 18. Holders of Armour & Co. debenture bonds, of which $60,000,000 were issued June 15, 1918, who convert their bonds into 7 per cent. preferred stock, will be entitled to subscribe for the stock of the leather company.

In the nineteen months since the issue of the debentures approximately $50,000,000 have been converted into stock. Prior to the next interest date of the debentures, June 15, when they may be called at par, the company may consider redeeming and paying off the debentures then outstanding. It was announced. The subscription price and the value of the new stock was not announced.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Senator King, Democrat, Utah, today replied to the attack made on the Senate yesterday by Senator Williams, Democrat, Mississippi, who charged that it was "failing to function."

"Declaring that 'the Senate still functions,' Senator King said the services of the Senate must not be measured by their attendance on the floor, adding:

"With twenty committees meeting yesterday it was not possible for all members to be here. The conference on the tariff bill, for instance, were in session with House conferees, and they would have been derelict in their duty had they not spent their time in this chamber."

Some Senators, he added, worked from twelve to fourteen hours a day.

HARVARD MAY CROSS POND.

Proposes Sending Varsity Eight to England.

Yale Contemplates Action Similar to Crimson's.

Boston Boat Club is Already in Training.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
BOSTON, Jan. 14.—The United States probably will be represented at the Henley regatta in England next summer by a crew from the Union Boat Club of this city, but selection of June 30 to July 3 as dates for the meeting, which was announced today, is expected to result in American entries.

Yale and Harvard Universities, it was learned today, have had under consideration a proposal to send their varsity eight across to compete for the grand challenge cup, held by Harvard as a result of the victory of a Crimson crew at Henley in 1914.

TOP FORM.
Capt. Withington said the Union would send a crew if it "got together right." Every effort will be made to bring the crew into top form. Races will be held with leading universities and club eight and the crew will enter the American Henley events at Philadelphia.

The Union Boat Club already has set about preparation of a crew to challenge for the grand cup and may also send individuals as competitors in the Diamond Scull event.

Lethrop Withington, former Harvard captain, now captain of the Union crew, said thirty men had appeared as candidates. The crew includes Lund, stroke of the Harvard eight which won the grand cup in 1914; Keener, coxswain of the crew; Whitman, Cutler and Murray, who captained Harvard eight of recent years; Lethrop, Paul Withington, coach and stroke of the A.E.F. crew which rowed at the last Henley, and at the Henley regatta at Paris last year; Amory Jefferys, a member of the A.E.F. crew, and Rhinemaker, formerly of the University of Pennsylvania.

EVER-SOOTHING POSLAM HEALS BROKEN-OUT SKIN

Let Poslam act for you as a soothing, concentrated, healing balm, to cover right over that itching skin trouble and soothe it, taking out the fire and burning, and then, as applications are repeated, causing the disorder to grow less and less, until the skin is healed. There is no risk in trying it to see if it really will eradicate your skin trouble, pimples, or other blemishes. And the burden of proof is on Poslam for you will want for visible results.

Sold everywhere. For free samples write to: Emergen Laboratories, 34 West 47th St., New York City.

Use your skin cream, Poslam, fresher, brighter, better by the daily use of Poslam Soap, medicated with Poslam.—Advertisement.

How to Keep Age-Lines and Wrinkles Away

Don't forget that the woman who smiles will have a skin more free from wrinkles than the woman who frowns. While wrinkles begin to appear it is a good plan to bathe the face once a day, for while in the bath the face is free from the influence of the sun, and by dissolving an ounce of powdered Poslam in a half pint of water, and using the water in the bath, the skin is kept soft and free from wrinkles. This is a remarkably effective in dissolving the harmful lines, not only because the skin is kept soft and free from wrinkles, but also because of the helpful tonic effect which improves the circulation and nerve tone. There is nothing better for flabby cheeks or thin lips than to use the Poslam for the powdered Poslam.—Advertisement.

REDLANDS SHOOTERS PLAN A BIG SEASON.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
REDLANDS, Jan. 14.—During the coming year the Redlands Rifle Club members will shoot for a number of trophies, including the big club trophy, which is shot for each year. It is planned to have the annual members' match and the qualification shoot on February 22.

The club is also planning to have a shoot with the Riverside club on the Crestmore range. The wind has been so high there recently that no shooting could be done. The new members of the local club are: W. M. Weaver, president; H. H. Ford, Jr., vice-president; A. T. Park, treasurer; C. A. Macculubin, secretary, and C. T. Rouse, executive officer.

Score made in the last shoot were:

MOTOR VEHICLE ACT IS NOW IN EFFECT.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—Motorists throughout California were advised today by the California State Automobile Association, that beginning tonight, all provisions of the new Motor Vehicle Act will be in force. The educational period allowed drivers to become acquainted with new provisions of the law is at an end, it was stated.

Headlight, signal and speed provisions will receive particular attention, according to Lieut. D. A. Sylvester, president of the Traffic Officers' Association here.

VATICAN LAMEN STRICKER.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
ROME, Tuesday, Jan. 13.—The Vatican has subscribed 20,000,000 lire to the sixth national loan, according to the Messaggero. This is the first time the newspaper stated that the Vatican has participated in such a loan.

ATLANTA GOAL OF CLUB FIVE.

Mercury Court Team Rounding into Form.

Players Hope to Cop National Title in Georgia.

Two Squads will be Entered in Local Tourney.

Under the untiring efforts of Coach Cliff Horne and Capt. Cooper, the championship L.A.A.C. basketball team is rapidly rounding into form. The players have never worked so hard or shown the enthusiasm in former years that is being shown this year. The club is exceptionally fortunate in having ten men that know basketball from every angle. The second five is practically as strong a team as the first.

TWO TEAMS.
Two teams will be entered in the Southern California A.A.U. championship by the L.A.A.C. in order to keep all men in trim for the national A.A.U. championship tournament, to be held at Atlanta, Ga., during the second week of March.

The Los Angeles Athletic Club team will be the only far western team to line up against the best basketball teams in the East. Followers of the court game feel confident that the present champions will be able to repeat, and return to the Coast with their excellent record unimpaired.

CREDIT TO WEAVER.

A great deal of credit is due Bob Weaver, president of the southern branch of the National A.A.U., and Frank Garbutt of the Los Angeles Athletic Club. It has been no easy matter to secure guarantees to defray the expenses of the men on one of the longest trips ever attempted by a basketball team.

The basket tossers who are trying for places are: "Sweet" Bay Red Wilson, Young, Rock, Laswell, forwards; Olney and Tate, center; Capt. Cooper, Kinrade, Cate and Slaughter, guards. Any teams wishing games kindly get in touch with Cliff Horne, manager of basketball, L.A.A.C.

WOMEN SHOULD FLY FOR HEALTH'S SAKE.

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—Women should fly as a matter of health, Miss Ruth Law, aviatrix, said in an address at the aeronautical show at the Coliseum today.

"Within a few years," she said, "every physician will own a machine or an interest in a machine so that he can send his patients who have affected lungs up to a height of a mile instead of sending them West."

"Daily trips to an altitude where the air is curative will be less expensive than trips to western mountains," she said. "Nothing is so refreshing as a spin in a flying machine."

HANDBALL FOR LADIES AT L.A.A.C. TONIGHT.

This is the night of tennis at the Los Angeles Athletic Club—indoor handball night. The girls of the club are to disport themselves for the edification of the admiring glances of the female of the species. That is, the chapter who believe they have ability on the close links of all the Southern California golf clubs and in the course of his wanderings he picked up a class game himself. Now Jake, like a lot of other college students, finds it necessary to pick up a little spare change to cover expenses of a college education. And Jake hates peeling potatoes, so he is currying the oranges for his roommates, so he is putting his golfing knowledge to work.

HARVARD TRACKSTERS CAN'T MEET OXFORD.

CAMBRIDGE (Mass.) Jan. 14.—The Harvard Athletic Committee decided tonight to decline an invitation to send a track team to England to compete with Oxford and Cambridge. The invitation was received about a month ago by both Yale and Harvard. The committee decided that it was impracticable to send a team this year.

SPORTING EDITOR GRABS JUICY JOB.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—Al C. Joy, local sporting editor and co-owner of the San Francisco newspaper man, will leave this week for Washington to undertake some of the promotion work of the Presidential campaign of Senator Hiram W. Johnson. Joy's appointment was announced today. It is expected he will accompany Senator Johnson on his country-wide speaking tour.

JACK WANTS TO EXPLAIN.

Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, wants to "explain" about his war record.

Manager Jack Kearns last night announced that he had telegraphed to the national commander of the American Legion in Indianapolis asking an opportunity for Dempsey to appear before the supreme council of that body and explain his conduct during the world war.

Kearns' action follows adoption by various posts of the American Legion of resolutions condemning Dempsey as a slacker and a draft dodger.

DEMPSEY'S WORK LAUDED.

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 14.—James W. Coffroth, who conducted a series of boxing bouts in 1918 for the benefit of the War Department's Committee on Training Camp Activities, gave out a statement tonight in support of the boxing ban. He said that Dempsey, heavyweight champion pugilist, it said:

"Dempsey traveled across the continent to box Willie Meekin in September, 1918, at his own expense, from New York to San Francisco and return, the contest netting $25,000 for the cause. I also wish to say that when I was getting as national chairman, division of boxing of the United War Work drive in November, 1918, Dempsey came to me with an instructor at hand and was conducted in Madison Square Garden. That brought in $103,000. Jack Dempsey was always at call for any charity work during the war."

SAGE HENS HAVE A GOLF "PRO."

In keeping with the progressive spirit of the times, Pomona College numbers among its undergraduates a golf professional, Jake Bassler, who is the newly appointed professional at the Indian Hill Club of Claremont, is a sophomore in the college. Jake and to cadge on the links of all the Southern California golf clubs and in the course of his wanderings he picked up a class game himself. Now Jake, like a lot of other college students, finds it necessary to pick up a little spare change to cover expenses of a college education. And Jake hates peeling potatoes, so he is currying the oranges for his roommates, so he is putting his golfing knowledge to work.

And so for a stated amount of the coin of the realm Jake is teaching the young high brows of the college the noble game of pasture pool. He has the form in putting and driving that Mike Brady uses so efficiently. Jake used to caddy for Mike and he didn't overlook any of Mike's tricks of the trade. And with such an instructor at hand and with a course almost on the campus, it seems likely that the college will soon turn out a world-class golfer.

Jake comes from a family of athletes. His brother, who was recently killed in an accident, was a noted professional here in the South. His brother Johnnie is the famous catcher of the Los Angeles club. Jake himself is a member of the college baseball team, and sunbathes the football team. Jake doesn't weight enough to tilt the scales either way, but when he wraps the driver around his neck about twice and then straightens her out, the watchword is "fore."

RUGGLES TOURNEY ON TAP AT CLUB.

The Ruggles handball doubles tourney is to start the 18th prox. at the Los Angeles Athletic Club. It was announced yesterday by Charley Keppen. There will be two games to each match, and two matches must be played each week. The total number of points count for the winner, and all the points a team can keep the other from making go to the victor—that is, the difference between 15 and 21, for instance, will be credited to the triumphant pair.

Ruggles, who is chairman of the Handball Committee, has donated the cups and picked the make-up of the competing pairs. They follow: Reiser and Gidding, Klawitter and Welton, Ranft and Pargiano, Allen and Nest, Bean and Giffon, Guffy and Nest, Amestoy and Caley, Elkies and Alouzet, Cochran and Howard, Goodwin and Haskell.

PREP LADS TRY OUT FOR SOCCER ELEVEN.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
SANTA MONICA, Jan. 14.—The Santa Monica Cricket Club is reorganizing its soccer team, and is expecting to include in the ranks of the new squad several high school athletes. Recently five of the boys were tried out with veteran players of the cricket club. The latter were enthusiastic over the form and skill of the youthful players. Secretary Edwards of the club declared today that it was as good as a foregone conclusion that "it simply isn't done" to pick up the ball and run with it. Santa Monica would have a winning team.

Baseball is trying to make a record for the duller side of history of the Coast. BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.

TOLEDO (O.) Jan. 14. — George Blumer of Ft. Wayne, Ind., manager for Frankie Mason, announced here tonight that a boxing bout for the flyweight championship of the world between Mason and Jimmie Wilde, reported from Milwaukee, had not been closed.

Blumer declared the only point agreed upon between himself and the Milwaukee promoter was the matter of weight.

Mason is scheduled for a twelve-round bout with Carl Tremaine here tomorrow night but was taken ill today and may not be able to appear.

A boxing commission physician said tonight that Mason has a slight attack of influenza.

SPUTTERING OF BASEBALL WEAK

for talent. Baseball, like everything else, has suffered from underproduction. War caused a hiatus in the game and retarded the development of new players.

Charley Graham and Bill Esick peregrinated eastward, but found it practically impossible to do any spot business with the majors. Graham, who had expected to make a big killing, returned all loaded down with promises, but his actual bag consisted of one pitcher secured from the American Association, an organization which is regarded as hardly up to Coast standards.

Seattle has made the most progress, which is a good thing, as the Swabbers were in need of it. They simply had to go ahead, as they couldn't go back any farther. Wares was more successful in his dealings with the majors than most of the rivals, putting through a "one-for-three" trade which figures to help his club.

There have been a few trades between Coast League clubs, while the season's Powers purchased Tex McDonald, a third baseman, from St. Paul. Maier has signed Hap Morse, a promising youngster with some professional experience, and has the guarantee of the Yankees for a couple of good men.

However, comparatively little new blood has been brought into the circuit and, outside of Seattle, the clubs stack up about as they did last season, save for the men lost through sales or retirements.

In short, there has been little doing in Coast League baseball, and this explains why the fans have been compelled to go on short rations.

An explanation of this is to be found in the fact that most of the desirable players are under the major-league cover and the Coasters are finding it difficult to get what they want until the big-league managers have whipped over their recruits in spring training. When things finally start they should go with a rush, and before many weeks baseball will have busted back into the banner line.

Ordinarily, at the baseball headquarters, the whole lot of them are finding it difficult to get what they want until the big-league managers have whipped over their recruits in spring training. When things finally start they should go with a rush, and before many weeks baseball will have busted back into the banner line.

Also, there has been in this city situation without precedent. "Edison Has Mastered the Secret of Tone Color" —that is not an advertising claim.

—it is a statement by no less a personage than Sigmund Spaeth, distinguished New York Music critic.
—Mr. Spaeth says:

"Edison alone has mastered the secret of the tone color. This makes his record an artistic RE-CREATION instead of an imitation of something whose reality must be left largely to the imagination of the hearer."

Come in and hear
The NEW EDISON
—better still, let us send the New Edison to your own home there to be tested by you in your own way. Then you will know why Sigmund Spaeth and other noted critics say that Edison alone has mastered the secret of tone color and its RE-CREATION. If possible have some other dealer send a "talking machine" to your home and make a direct comparison with the New Edison. This will furnish very interesting evidence concerning the New Edison's superior tone quality and realism.

ANCIENT HISTORY.
After tomorrow the classic remarks of the Governor of North Carolina to the Governor of South Carolina will be enshrined in the Constitution of our beloved country.

HARMONY ON HOT WATER.
It is said that potatoes are dear because the cars needed for their shipment are being used to haul planes. People simply have to have planes in order to keep harmony in the family, while potatoes are only fit to eat.

ANOTHER CASE.
The case of Berger should be treated the same as any other case of beer that comes out of Milwaukee. It has no legal standing in this country and must get out before the whistle blows. Berger should not be allowed to wander over the land with foam in his neck.

BACK TO THE SENSIBLE.
Republicans in Illinois are weary of their primary law and in several counties of the State are going back to their party conference in order to get suitable candidates into the field—candidates whom the voters are sufficiently interested in to vote for. The primary may produce men who want the office, but it never shows the office hunting the right man.

FIN AND FLOW.
Fifty years ago many landowners sold valuable farms in New England to buy cheap sewage in the West. This year their children are selling valuable properties in the West to buy cheap land in New England. Just the natural ebb and flow of the land tide—or as Tennyson would express it—"that which drew from out the vast deep turns snail home."

ANOTHER SKIN GAME.
Another thing to worry about is the advance of 1000 per cent. in the price of muskrat skins. We thought the boost in bread and milk was bad enough, but here is a perfectly stupendous increase. Not long ago States were paying bounties for the destruction of this pest, which wrought havoc with their levees, but now the natives are raising them for their pelts and are paying for large families. Some amiable professor has found a way of making up their hides into moleskin cloaks for movie queens.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?
In ancient days, when a potentate desired more territory, he frankly grabbed it. Later on public opinion objected to the word "grab," so such extraneous real estate became a subject for annexation. In time the word "annexation" passed under the ban and was replaced by spheres of influence. In the newborn zeal for democracy spheres of influence have acquired a harsh sound to diplomatic ears. So now mandates are all the rage.

DOES THIS MEAN THAT SHAKESPEARE IS AGAIN CONFOUNDED—OR IS A GRAB MERELY DIFFERENT FROM A ROSE—IT SMELLS SWEETER BY ANOTHER NAME?

NO BARRIERS.
Gen. Leonard Wood declares that first of all he is a physician and that with him the army was and is an afterthought. The presumption is that he can feel the pulse of the people and properly prescribe for the ills of Uncle Sam, but it was as a military man that he gained and held popular regard. As it is, he does not intend to resign from the army to further the Presidential work of his friends, neither does the War Department expect him to leave the service. On both sides there is a willingness to leave the future of the general to the judgment of circumstance and the decision of the people.

BEFORE THE MIRROR.
Senator John Sharp Williams is not particularly impressed with his own grandeur and importance and in that respect is in marked contrast with some of his colleagues. He says the Senate trifles with trifles and is impoverished in the face of big things. He says that he is inclined to support the contention of Benjamin Franklin that the Senate is as useless as a fifth wheel to a wagon. It is certain that the Senatorial wrangling and delay over the peace covenant has brought to a great many minds the reluctant admission that the country would be the better off without its greatest debating club.

DANGER SIGNALS.
According to the reports of the Pennsylvania Railroad that system has 15 per cent. more employees than it had under private operation, yet the men are doing 12 per cent. less work than the old number. It now takes ten men to do the work of six and the ten are being paid almost three times as much as the original six. The stockholders and the public must pay. It is difficult to explain how anyone not a railroad employee could favor government operation in the face of such established incidents as these, and even the railway men must realize that such a condition cannot long endure. There must be a speeding up of individual effort somewhere.

USING CHINESE LABOR.

WHY not utilize Chinese farm labor to till the fallow acres in California and elsewhere, and thus conjure away both the excessively high prices of essential foodstuffs and the Japanese menace? That question, asked by The Times on Sunday, assumed almost overnight the proportions of a live issue. It was the chief topic of discussion in business and commercial circles Monday and a number of different organizations are already promoting the plan.

France set the example during the dark days of the German invasion. When the services of every Frenchman were required, either at the front or in the war industries, none was left to till the soil. Yet, for men to fight it was necessary that they should eat; and the French government boldly slashed the Gordian knot by setting the machinery in motion by which more than 300,000 Chinese farmers were transported across the Pacific, carried overland through Canada and on across the Atlantic, and finally distributed over the farming districts of France. A few agitators cried that the French peasant was to be supplanted by the Chinaman and that France would be a yellow man's country if it escaped from the clutches of the Hun. But the French spirit was thoroughly aroused for the national defense and there was no reluctance about doing the thing at hand.

Those Chinese laborers were taken to France under a three-year contract for agricultural employment. They are all listed and numbered. Each signed an agreement to return to China at the end of the three-year period and the French government was equally pledged to furnish transportation to carry them back. It was through their employment that the French government was able to keep the war industries functioning until German military power was crushed. Some of the contracts have already expired and the French government is sending the Chinese back as fast as the peasants return to take their places on the farms.

II.

WHY should this country hesitate to employ a means of increasing the production of its vast and scantily manured farm areas, that proved so successful in dealing with the farm-labor problem in France? Why should Los Angeles continue to produce 85 per cent. of its vegetables from Japanese market gardeners at enormously high prices when Chinese labor is available to produce the vegetables at about half the present cost to the consumer? These are questions with which every head of a family is concerned.

It does not mean making a yellow man's country of California any more than France. But it seems to be the one thing needful to check the present Japanese invasion, to prevent the Japanese from acquiring a monopoly of the agricultural acreage of California. We have the agitators among us who will charge that it is an attempt to cheapen American labor, that it is a movement to make American workmen compete with Chinese coolies. But the intelligent workers will not be deceived. Places are waiting for skilled labor in the growing industries of California. No honest and capable workman is now out of employment. The men who formerly tilled the acres are engaged in industries where they receive two or three times the wages formerly paid on the farms. They have no desire to return to the fields. But they cannot continue to work in shops and industries if they are not fed. Someone must perform the manual labor on the farms; and the Chinese laborers are essentially suited for that work.

What benefit does the wife of an industrial worker receive when she pays 6 cents a pound to a Japanese potato, king when the Chinese would produce tubers at half the price? It is not a competition of white and yellow labor. The Japanese are now in possession; and they will remain in possession until the monopoly is broken. For the present at least, the substitution of Chinese labor is the only available remedy.

The Times has pointed out that if a machine were invented that would till the farms and harvest the crops for one-half the present cost it would be received amid universal rejoicing, for it would reduce very materially to the city dweller the price of living. Should it be rejected because the machine is possessed of human intelligence? Let the Los Angeles housewife recall the time, not so far remote, when she purchased her vegetables of the Chinaman right at her own door for one-fourth the price she now pays to the Japanese vegetable trust. How happy would she be to see the old Chinaman back! He has been supplanted by the Jap and she is compelled to pay a heavy tribute daily to the Japanese profiteer.

III.

MANY who do not understand the details of "gentlemen's agreements" and Chinese exclusion acts are asking what benefit would be derived from exchanging Chinese farmers for the Japs. There is a material difference. The Chinese Exclusion Act prohibits the landing of Chinese unskilled labor at American ports. Only the merchants and the intellectuals are permitted to land; and that law is enforced at all American ports of entry. Under the so-called "gentlemen's agreement" it is the duty of the Japanese government to see that no Japanese except the merchant princes, artists and savants embark from Japanese ports for America. Its purport is the same as the Chinese Exclusion Act; but it is enforced at Japanese ports of departure. Once on board a vessel bound for this country, the Japanese coolie is safe.

That difference between enforcement at Japanese ports of departure and American ports of entry explains why the Chinese population of California has fallen 50 per cent. in the last fifteen years and the Japanese population has increased 1500 per cent. Japan threatens war if the Chinese Exclusion Act is extended to apply to Japanese; and the Federal government has flinched before that threat and made a "gentlemen's agreement" instead, which seems to have served only to accelerate Japanese immigration. So we have a "peaceful" invasion of California, backed by the army and navy of Japan.

That quailing before the menace of a Japanese armed attack is repugnant to preconceived ideas of Americanism. That a free people shall not have the right to protect itself against undesirable intruders is unthinkable; but it is the actual condition that has grown up by reason of the "gentlemen's agreement." Our government barred the Chinese by an exclusion act, because China was too decadent to resist; it permits the Japanese to come at the will of their own monarch, because Japan threatened to fight. That squares badly with our ideas of justice and of complete supervision over our internal affairs; but it is the actual condition that exists in relation to Japanese and Chinese immigration. Surely the time has arrived to put an end to such pettifoggery. By what right do the Japanese claim superiority to the Chinese in the eyes of the American government? By the right of the strongest. And are we to continue to recognize that right? If so, the day of American decadence is fast approaching.

IV.

PERMITTING the Japanese to slip through the meshes of that "gentlemen's agreement" by the tens of thousands while the Chinese are rigorously barred by an exclusion act is too glaring an example of peace at any price. The condition has obtained because not one American in a hundred has known that it existed. They are not aware that the government at Washington is sacrificing the soil of a sovereign State in order not to offend a supposedly friendly power. Friendship is too dear when purchased at such a price.

Let us have a little more backbone at Washington. It is fully within the province of Congress to modify the Chinese Exclusion Act so that a million Chinamen can be brought to this country under a three-year contract to till valuable agricultural lands now lying fallow. At the end of the three years they can be returned, and if sufficient American labor is available for the farms the modification can be repealed. Meanwhile, California can do something in its own way about limiting the influx of the Japanese. There are certain inalienable rights possessed by the sovereign States. California can enforce any land laws and educational laws it deems advisable, without concurrence on the part of the Federal government. Give us the Chinese laborers to tide over the present shortage and we will handle the Japanese question in our own way.

Do not forget that the Chinaman who may come here under contract to perform farm labor is here for a period of but three years, while the tens of thousands of Japanese who are violating the "gentlemen's agreement" are here for life, and their children remain after them.

IS THE AGE GROTESQUE?

One of the male dancers, who for the present holds the title of the public, recently admitted the charge that his dancing is grotesque. He gave as his excuse that this is a grotesque age and that to express life he must be fantastic. He probably had his finger to the side of his nose at the time. But, even were he serious in his argument, he voiced an entirely erroneous view. There is much that many people consider barbarous in the dancing of today, just as there is a good deal of distorted poetry and painting. Therefore it is not surprising that a man whose cleverness lies in his feet might think everything more or less grotesque. He is wrong. It is not extravagant to say that, despite the destructive war just waged and the topsy-turvydom produced in some quarters, this is the most useful age the world has seen. Free education, great inventions, women's clubs, better wages, improved housing and a thousand other agencies have combined to make it so. Those who come after us and who will be able, as it were, to stand off and view this age in comparison with those that have gone before will be unable to reach any other conclusion. They will have to admit that the period which gave the world the airplane, wireless telegraphy, the phonograph and the moving picture was one of the most practical, progressive and useful in the history of mankind.

IT IS SOLENN BUNK!

Norman Hapgood was appointed American Ambassador to Denmark. He is represented as saying that he welcomed that appointment because it would give him an opportunity to present the soviet government of Russia in its true light—in other words, because his appointment would enable him to whitewash the soviet government of Russia. He had distinguished precedents for such an ambition. Mr. Bullitt and Mr. Stevens had received somewhat similar appointments and they had wielded the whitewash brush with zest and dispatch. Why should not he do the same?

Now Mr. Hapgood was no unknown quantity. As a newspaper editor he has been before the country for many years. His ultra-realism is a matter of common knowledge. No one familiar with his career would hesitate for a moment to say that Mr. Hapgood has the sort of mind that would find it intolerant sympathy with Bolshevism. But now the less he is appointed as American Ambassador to Europe. Who advised the President to make this appointment, an appointment so shocking that the Senate refused to ratify it? Must we actually be forced to the conclusion that a violent and revolutionary radicalism is becoming the sine qua non to high governmental office? It would almost seem so. But at least we are made aware of the fact. Let there be an end to the solemn game of bunk. Let us cease to be hoodwinked by theatrical and enormously costly shipments of a few scores of friendless alien anarchists while at the same time the great cause of anarchy is being sedulously fostered and recruited in high places.—[Sydney Corbin in the Argonaut.

THOSE FIVECENT DYES.

Enough bananas could be bought for 5 cents to give three boys indigestion, but that was long ago.

There was a time when small boys were wont to do chores around the home for the coveted nickel—but not now.

But gradually, one by one, the uses of the "fifties" passed away. It would buy nothing to eat, nothing to drink, unless reinforced by the once despised penny, until only a ride on a street car remained to be secured in exchange for the nickel.

AS WOMAN THINKETH.

BY HELEN ROWLAND.

When is a woman most interesting to men?

Bernard Shaw won't tell!

No, no, no, no! He refuses to "make a fool of himself!"

Oh, very well! Then, here goes!

One doesn't mind being foolish once in a while—just for art's sake!

A woman is most interesting to ANY man—

Just before the first kiss!

When she isn't trying to be interesting.

When she is interested—in somebody else.

When another woman has begun to bore him.

When she has brains enough to make her forget that she is beautiful.

And beauty enough to make him forget that she has brains!

When she is old enough to know a lot about men—and still young enough to care a lot about them.

When she is clever enough to understand all a man says—and not clever enough to say anything which he doesn't understand.

When she is sufficiently experienced not to be easily shocked—and sufficiently innocent not to be easily kissed.

When she is sufficiently spirituelle to appeal to his higher nature—and sufficiently human to appeal to the other 98 per cent. of him.

When she cares just enough to respond if he is interested—but not enough to be interested, if he doesn't respond.

When she is fond—but not too fond.

When she likes him well enough to be glad when he calls—and not well enough to be miserable when he goes.

When she doesn't bore him to death with indifference—or frighten him to death with devotion.

When she has been a widow just long enough to begin to flirt a little with one eye—while she continues to weep a little with the other.

When she is intelligent enough to discuss "New Thought" in the abstract—and frivolous enough to gaze up into his eyes with all the old, old ones.

When she has too much sagacity to pursue him—and just enough audacity to sit back and make him pursue her.

When she wears a crane veil, a nurse's uniform or ballet slippers.

When she dresses like a "picture"—but not like a poster!

When she neither tries to fascinate him nor to reform him.

When she neither puts him on a pedestal nor makes a door-mat of him—but cheerfully accepts him as a "mere man"—and lets him go on being "mere."

When she knows enough to keep him guessing—and far too much to let him "see the wheels go round" in her heart, her head or at her dressing table.

When she is talking about HIMSELF—his latest book—his newest play—his business acumen—his craft—his muscular prowess—his golf score—or his soul!

And, above all,

When she is LISTENING TO HIM!

CHRIST OR CHAOS.

The earthquake shock and whirlwind's roar.

Have rocked the world from shore to shore.

Old traditions are crumbling into mud.

Old creeds are trampled red with blood.

Like ocean flayed before the wind.

Are tossed the hearts of all mankind.

War's hate has gnawed earth's mother.

There is no peace, there is no rest.

Beyond their depths old leaders grope To find in gloom some shape of hope.

The wisdom of the wisest fails.

The lore of statesmen naught avails.

The old diplomacy is dead.

Old policy hands in vain are spread.

Old systems of well-buttressed thought.

Are left behind, as things of naught.

Old social orders cannot meet.

Conditions fresh from battle heat.

The warrior at his best still sows.

The fertile seed of war and woes.

The theories of sane dreamers wilt.

As the new dawn avert is split.

Lured here, lured there the people hie,

Despairing turn from beckoning lies.

The world must flee from chaos, death.

Back to the hills of Nazareth.

Where waiting calm a peasant stands.

To build the new world with his hands.

The old world-makers as they try To build secure, but pass him by.

Or toss a sweet, adoring song.

Or, bending knee, pass swift along.

He waits to enter on his own.

The wisest statesman earth has known.

'Tis Christ or chaos! Only He Can make the peoples safe and free.

Can lead the leaders safely forth To build anew the stricken earth.

Freed from the rule of force and hate.

Truth, justice, love His craft of state.

POINT OUT SAMSON'S GRAVE.

The site of Gaza, in Palestine, has been hallowed by the passing of nearly 4000 years of recorded history, and while "the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza" may have seemed a considerable journey to Philip, Gaza is but a little farther to the southwest of Jerusalem than Washington is from Baltimore.

Residents of Gaza will show the visitor Samson's tomb. The tradition of his burial there is unfounded, but there is more reason for believing that a bare, isolated knoll to the south of the city is the hill "before Hebron" to which the strong man will have to hire a corps of assistants to keep tab on the money.

POTS OF WEALTH.

The poker editor of the Thomas Cat requests each poker game in the city of Hot Springs to send a dollar at every sitting, the money to be drawn from the pot at a time when it will not be missed; and he is in in such way as not to reveal the identity of the sender.

This money is to be expended for charity. If every poker game in Hot Springs sends this the poker editor will have to hire a corps of assistants to keep tab on the money.

DROLL STORIES.

Maybe She Was Right.

There had been a quarrel. Every body could see that the minute they came into the tramcar. The woman sat with tightly-pressed lips, her hands gripping her umbrella firmly.

The man sank down on his spine and glowered at the advertisement. The other passengers got interested.

Then there came a dead silence as the car halted to let off a passenger. Into the silence came the woman's thin, angry voice.

"It wasn't for me you'd be the biggest fool in London!"

Then for the first time the man grinned and the others joined with him.—London Answers.

An Egress.

A southerner recently saw at a railway station in Canada an old negro, says the Chicago State, looking helplessly about him.

"What's the matter, uncle?" he inquired. "Lost your way?"

"No, nink yah, boss, not so you kin hit him, but I lokin' fer a colored woman."

"Your wife?"

"No, boss, I ain't never seen her, but at de station de clerk winder how you got out hury, an' he say, 'You din' a negress on dat side.' And boss, hit been so long sence I saw a colored lady, he might be glad to know hit. An' I been glad to see de side eber sence, an' boss, I cain' 'fin her nowhere."

Wise Old Bird.

Gen. Charles T. Mower said at a dinner in Washington:

"The civilian who tries to teach a soldier how to conduct a court-martial reminds me of the young man who tried to teach the parrot to talk."

"The young man said he knew all about parrots, and guaranteed to teach a bird—a bird he thought was young and untrained—to say 'hello!'"

"So he sat down in front of the parrot and said, 'Hello, hello, hello!'"

The parrot didn't pay him the slightest attention, but when he got through it opened its eyes lazily, drawled, "Line back, ring off, and then close de eyes again."—[St. Louis Republic.

Queens of Finance.

"Tell me, Ethel, is it true that your husband plays every night at the club to stay billiards—for money?"

There was a sob in the anxious mother's voice as she spoke the last words. But her recently-wed daughter smiled brightly as she replied:

"Yes, mother, but it's quite all right. He gives me all his winnings."

"What?" gasped the elder lady.

"He always plays with Mr. Jones next door, went on Ethel. "And Mr. Jones makes him give her all his winnings, and she gives me all the money she gets and I give her all the money I get, and so we both have about twice as much as we could get out of them otherwise."

Joke of the Lawyer.

There is a lawyer in Toledo, O., who finds fault in everything with which he comes in contact. He rates insinuations against the integrity of the persons he cross-examines, and unswerves them. And in at least one court where the judge is an old colleague of his Mr. Brownbaker gets away with his deadly work. But sometimes he slips, even in that favorable court.

For instance:

An old negro whitewasher sat trembling before him in the witness chair.

"You are Sam Harrison?" demanded the attorney.

"Yes, sah."

"And you are the Sam Harrison who was sentenced for robbery?"

"No, sah. Ah'm not dat Harrison."

"You are perhaps the Harrison who was sentenced to two years' imprisonment for grand larceny?"

"No, sah. Ah'm not dat Harrison, either."

"Were you ever in prison?"

"Yes, sah."

"How long were you there?"

"A whole afternoon."

"Ah was whitewashed! a cell for a lawyer who had been looked up for 'beat' his clients."—[Judge.

ESSAY ON THE LEISURE CLASSES.

There aren't any. This is evident from the super-illustrated hints for Christmas shopping. Behold this twenty-two-room Tudor mansion standing four blocks back from the road in its own grounds. Does the mistress of this mansion spend her time on bridge, amateur theatricals and beauty parlors? Not at all. She is there right in front of the house, rapturously thanking her husband for the gift of an electric washing machine which will make her Mondays so much easier. Behold the magnificent young couple on the way to the opera, he in full regalia of office clothes, silk hat and fur coat, she in a $3000 cloak. How do they manage it? By introducing a double-entry system of household accounts, with special reference to casserole cooking. Behold this handsome living-room with well-groomed father and fashionably-dressed mother looking up cheerily from their newspaper by the lamp of green glass, while the young lady and her daughter enter in furs and high spirits. Where does she come from—the executive committee of the Junior debutantes? No, she has just got a job with the telephone company. There are no leisure classes.

STATE SELLS VALLEY LAND.

Oil Development Proves incentive to Bidders.

Negro Fails in Suit Against Jap Caterer.

El Centro Business Men Hold Annual Banquet.

EL CENTRO, Jan. 14.—Under authority of the State surveyor-general, W. S. Kingsbury, a sale of school lands was held this morning at the Court House. Lands in Imperial Valley topped every record for the State when a high price of $27.25 an acre was bid for a tract in the vicinity of the James oil well at Coyote Wells.

A total acreage of 2580 was sold and it was the hope of those in charge to dispose of the remainder of 30,000 acres this afternoon before 5 o'clock. Thirty-five thousand acres of school lands in Imperial county were offered for sale this morning.

Those who have the sale in charge are D. J. Shields, assistant to the surveyor-general; George Kehlenback, clerk to the surveyor-general; and A. W. Babson, deputy surveyor-general.

Lands in the vicinity of the Brawley well also sold high, a section within 500 feet of the well selling for $22.25 an acre. Inasmuch as the only possible use for the lands will be for oil production and oil has not yet been found in the valley the purchasers displayed much faith in the future.

The lowest price at which any land was sold was $15.10 an acre and this was for locations far from oil.

Bidders were required to pay 10 per cent. of the purchase price in cash.

JAPANESE WINS.

Fred Taira, Japanese, who refused H. B. Thomas, negro, a meal and was made a defendant in a suit for $5000 because of alleged racial discrimination, won his suit when a jury brought in a verdict of not guilty today. The evidence introduced by Taira was to the effect that Thomas had not conducted himself in a proper manner and that he had been refused the meal for this reason and not because he was a negro.

BANDITS AT SAN DIEGO.

Hold up Restaurant Walter and Bob Naval Officers.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 14.—Two hold-up men entered the White House luncheon room on Broadway in the business district early this morning and held up Sam Kipp, night waiter, with two revolvers, while they robbed the cash register. They took all the money in sight, which amounted to $25.50, according to the report made to the police by Louis Kipp, brother of Sam Kipp and proprietor of the restaurant.

Thieves took Liberty Bonds valued at $1150 from the desk drawer of Lieut.-Comm. W. Maack of the Pacific Fleet air detachment at North Island.

A theft was reported to the police this morning as being done sometime between Sunday and last night.

Commander Maack reports that the lock on his desk was broken in order that the burglar could obtain the bonds. The officer is an instructor on land machine work at North Island, the naval air station.

REDLANDS, Jan. 14.—Jerome Phlegley, the 19-year-old boy who confessed to being the fire band who attempted to burn several houses around the Catholic Church here, was placed in the County Hospital by Judge J. W. Curtis so that the experts could make an investigation as to his mentality.

Phlegley acknowledged that he started the fire, and said that he liked to see the blaze and see the fire department go to it. It is believed that an investigation will show that his mentality is that of a child.

FUTURE WAR WOULD RESULT IN DISASTER.

WAR WORKER TELLS RED-LANDS AUDIENCE OF MODERN INVENTIONS.

REDLANDS, Jan. 14.—Dr. James A. Francis of Los Angeles was speaker in France, in an address at the First Methodist Church last night, declared that the world does not dare have another war. "There are things known to science now," he said, "by which whole cities can be wiped out almost as quick as it takes to tell it. If there is another war in the next twenty-five years it will mean the disemboweling of the civilized world."

Dr. Francis declared that the greatest shame on the United States is the fact that this country did not head the list of nineteen nations which last Saturday signed the great peace ever made in the world. He says that he will never cease regretting that the United States did not sign the document.

He said that in the last fifty years man has gained more control over nature than was gained from the time of creation up to fifty years ago. But the world has not advanced that much spiritually or mentally, and there lies our problem," he said.

BANKS REFLECT GROWTH.

Deposits in Pomona Institution Show Rise Increase.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

POMONA, Jan. 14.—Three Pomona banks holding annual meetings today were unanimous in reporting the biggest year in their respective histories. The directors were ones in their opinion that Pomona was now on the soundest business basis that it has ever been, and was facing a coming year of even greater prosperity.

This was voiced by Charles M. Stone, president of the First National Bank and treasurer of the Los Angeles County Bankers' Association, whose bank shows assets of approximately $3,000,000, and with $25,000 added to its surplus after the usual dividend had been declared at the annual meeting. The total deposits of local banks show an increase of over $2,000,000 during the year, or about a 75 per cent. increase, as follows: January 1, 1919, $5,151,702.15; January 1, 1920, $5,175,447.44, or an increase of $23,745.29.

STRANGE THINGS TO HAPPEN AT VENICE.

FINAL DEMISE OF BARLEYCOORN WORKS WONDERS AT RESORT.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

VENICE, Jan. 14.—Various haunts of old John Barleycorn, as he was in the "good old days," and as he has been in his recently abbreviated form, are said by their managers and proprietors to be all ready to turn over a new leaf.

When Father Time strikes the death toll of bottled joy, many strange things will happen in Venice. To show how easy it is to tumble from the sublime to the ridiculous, proprietors of Menotti's buffet, announced today that Menotti's would be a grocery store, the Ship Cafe will change hands Friday night, and after that time will be merely a high-class restaurant. The Mecca buffet, where many a man's sorrows have been sent into temporary oblivion, will blossom out into an up-to-date drug store. A cafeteria will be instituted in the Strand Cafe. The Arcade Buffet will be transformed into an ice cream parlor and lunch room, and the Dome cafe will probably become a dance pavilion again. The Ocean View roof garden will be no more.

It is expected that there will be great hilarity on the night of January 15. Most saloon and cafe proprietors declare they will close at 11:30 p.m.

Crown City Experiences Wave of Crime.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

PASADENA, Jan. 14.—Foes of the fragrant cigarette, the pure Havana cigar and the juicy plug had a merry time of it whacking tobacco and the persons who use it, at the State convention held today at the Pasadena Y.M.C.A.

No less a person than Elihu Root, former U. S. Senator and former Cabinet member, came next being named, in resolutions, for the displeasure of the No-Tobacco League. A delegate proposed resolutions protesting against Mr. Root's appointment as representative of the United States to the Supreme Court of the world on the ground that he used the weed. However, a number of delegates stated they did not know whether Mr. Root is a tobacco user or not and suggested that the protest of the anti-liquor people against Mr. Root for alleged alignment with weeds, were sufficient. Consequently, the Root resolution.

Rev. James A. Walton of Los Angeles, superintendent of the Anti-Cigarette League, told the convention he was shocked to observe bathing girls at the beaches near Los Angeles who wore cigarette cases attached to their garters. He also charged that cigarette manufacturers injected a poison known only to themselves into their cigarettes and that this poison was fifty times worse than alcohol.

Mrs. G. B. Wolf of Long Beach denounced the Red Cross magazine, official organ of the American Red Cross, because it published tobacco advertisements, and the convention decided to write to the national Red Cross office protesting against these advertisements.

Strong resolutions denouncing the use of tobacco, urging that public sentiment be stirred up against its use, manufacture and sale for the purpose of crystallizing support for legislation on the subject were adopted.

Eugene Chaffin of Long Beach, former Presidential candidate of the Prohibition party, spoke on "Nicotine Next."

Dr. J. J. Bryant of Long Beach was re-elected president of the league. Rev. George E. Whipple, Whittier, secretary; H. N. Eldwell, Pasadena, treasurer; F. W. Lough, who came to Pasadena from the East some time ago to be superintendent of the league, was reappointed to that position.

Strong resolutions denouncing the use of tobacco, urging that public sentiment be stirred up against its use, manufacture and sale for the purpose of crystallizing support for legislation on the subject were adopted.

Eugene Chaffin of Long Beach, former Presidential candidate of the Prohibition party, spoke on "Nicotine Next."

Dr. J. J. Bryant of Long Beach was re-elected president of the league. Rev. George E. Whipple, Whittier, secretary; H. N. Eldwell, Pasadena, treasurer; F. W. Lough, who came to Pasadena from the East some time ago to be superintendent of the league, was reappointed to that position.

Six daring daylight burglaries have been reported to the Pasadena police in the space of six hours. All were at residences but at only two of them did the thieves get any booty. At the home of A. J. Aber, 510 South Los Robles avenue, a gold watch and chain and a gold locket were stolen. At the home of Henry Fobner, 323 Main street, the thief got a gold fountain pen. At the other houses the robbers ransacked the premises but evidently did not find anything that suited them.

MAY BE REGIONAL DIRECTOR.

F. L. Thurston of the Pasadena evening high school may be regional supervisor for Pasadena, Alhambra, Montevia, and other near-by towns in the direction of the work of teaching under-educated persons up to 21 years, under the terms of the compulsory education law as amended by the last Legislature. Mr. Thurston's appointment by the Pasadena school district has been approved by State Superintendent Will C. Wood.

STRANGE THINGS TO HAPPEN AT VENICE.

FINAL DEMISE OF BARLEYCOORN WORKS WONDERS AT RESORT.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

VENICE, Jan. 14.—Various haunts of old John Barleycorn, as he was in the "good old days," and as he has been in his recently abbreviated form, are said by their managers and proprietors to be all ready to turn over a new leaf.

When Father Time strikes the death toll of bottled joy, many strange things will happen in Venice. To show how easy it is to tumble from the sublime to the ridiculous, proprietors of Menotti's buffet, announced today that Menotti's would be a grocery store, the Ship Cafe will change hands Friday night, and after that time will be merely a high-class restaurant. The Mecca buffet, where many a man's sorrows have been sent into temporary oblivion, will blossom out into an up-to-date drug store. A cafeteria will be instituted in the Strand Cafe. The Arcade Buffet will be transformed into an ice cream parlor and lunch room, and the Dome cafe will probably become a dance pavilion again. The Ocean View roof garden will be no more.

It is expected that there will be great hilarity on the night of January 15. Most saloon and cafe proprietors declare they will close at 11:30 p.m.

CHURCH WORKERS MEET.

RIVERSIDE, Jan. 14.—More than 300 young people, representing nine different Methodist churches, will attend the conference of Sunday-school workers, to be held in the first Methodist Church of this city, Thursday, according to information received by Dr. Benjamin S. Haywood pastor. Delegates will come from points as remote as Victorville and Blythe, over many miles of desert, and will help to make the occasion one of the greatest in the history of local Methodism.

PASADENA, Jan. 14.—Foes of the fragrant cigarette, the pure Havana cigar and the juicy plug had a merry time of it whacking tobacco and the persons who use it, at the State convention held today at the Pasadena Y.M.C.A.

No less a person than Elihu Root, former U. S. Senator and former Cabinet member, came next being named, in resolutions, for the displeasure of the No-Tobacco League. A delegate proposed resolutions protesting against Mr. Root's appointment as representative of the United States to the Supreme Court of the world on the ground that he used the weed. However, a number of delegates stated they did not know whether Mr. Root is a tobacco user or not and suggested that the protest of the anti-liquor people against Mr. Root for alleged alignment with weeds, were sufficient. Consequently, the Root resolution.

Mrs. G. B. Wolf of Long Beach denounced the Red Cross magazine, official organ of the American Red Cross, because it published tobacco advertisements, and the convention decided to write to the national Red Cross office protesting against these advertisements.

DAILY TRADE TALK.

Belgian Loan is Ready; Ham and Eggs Advance; New Branch Bank.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

Interest in the financial district centered yesterday about the announcement of the big Belgian loan, preliminary rumblings of which have been heard for some time. This loan is regarded as the keynote of future European offerings and the manner in which it is received may have a very important bearing upon the year's financing. The distribution will be vigorously prosecuted in Los Angeles where practically every bond house is a participant.

The loan is for $25,000,000 and is a direct obligation of the Kingdom of Belgium. It is on a gold basis, five year 6 per cent. notes, due January 1, 1925, and one year 4 per cent. notes, due January 1, 1921. J. P. Morgan and Company, the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, fiscal agents of the Belgian government in the United States, and the National City Company of New York are the underwriters of the issue.

The notes will be issued in denominations of $1000 each, and are payable at maturity at 100 in gold coin in New York. At the price at which the notes will be sold, they will yield more than 7 per cent. to the investor. In addition to the fact that the notes are a sound investment, they are a speculative feature based on the exchange rates which enables the investor who wishes to take advantage of this feature to greatly increase his earnings. The holder has the option of surrendering his notes and to request the fiscal agents of the Belgian government to sell 11,000 Belgian francs per $1000 note at such rate as the market as may be obtainable, but not at a rate less favorable than 11 francs per dollar, which is approximately the present exchange rate. Half of the profit obtained in such a transaction goes to the noteholder; the other half is retained for the account of the Belgian government. This means that if the rate of exchange goes back to parity, which is $18 francs to the dollar, the noteholder realizes a profit of $500 over and above the interest on each thousand dollar note.

In the event of such a sale by the noteholder, he receives par plus interest in addition to the profit derived from exchange, and no commission to exceed 1-4 of 1 per cent. will be charged for making the sale.

The Belgian government has agreed that in the event any loan is made by the government and secured by any specific revenue or asset of the government, the present loan shall be secured ratably with the new loan. The peace treaty has provided that Belgium, through reparations, is to be relieved of practically its entire war debt incurred prior to the armistice, and $480,000,000 payments of reparations to be applied in part toward liquidation of advances made to Belgium by the allied governments since the armistice.

The books on the sale of these notes will open today at 10 o'clock, and will be closed at the option of the fiscal agents and underwriters of the issue. The allotment of the one-year notes will be made after the closing of the books; the purchaser, however, is allowed to pay at the maturity of the desired. No deduction for any Belgian taxes, present or future, will be made at the time of payment of either principal or interest. Interest is payable semi-annually, on January 1, and July 1.

Lyman as an Author. Clarence A. Lyman, publicity director for the Security Trust and Savings Bank, is acquiring considerable fame as a writer upon topics incident to bank service and the points of contact between the financial institutions and the public, as pointed out by the writer in the "The Man's Land of Trust" Department Advertising.

Crandall to San-Pedro. Arthur I. Crandall, well known in local banking circles, and for many years cashier of the old California Savings Bank, has been elected to the cashiership of the Bank of San Pedro. During the war, Mr. Crandall was in the military service.

Citizens' Branch Bank. Work has so far progressed on the branch bank of the Citizens Trust & Savings Bank at 6718 Hollywood boulevard that President Monette said yesterday that the bank would be ready for business by the 25th of this month. A handsome home has been erected for this branch, thoroughly equipped with every banking convenience. While the branch is established to meet the requirements of the bank's customers in Hollywood it is the belief of the officers of the institution that the growing financial importance of this part of the city will make it of great importance. O. B. Berry, assistant cashier at the Broadway parent bank, is to be

LATEST NEWS OF FOOD PRICES.

The rise in the prices of eggs, which have advanced sharply since Monday on the local produce exchange, is only a temporary flurry, caused by heavy shipments of eggs out of Los Angeles during the past week with a resultant local shortage, explained F. M. Hudson, secretary of the Los Angeles Produce Exchange, yesterday. During the past three days fresh eggs have gone up 1 cent per dozen on the exchange, and egg counts eggs have advanced 2 cents per dozen, and pullet eggs have shown an increase of 4 cents per dozen. Retail prices have not, as yet, been materially affected, and prices react to the lower level which prevailed last week, as seems probable with the advent of warmer weather and the lessening of the outside demand, there may be no increase of price to the consumer.

During the past week there has been a heavy demand for eggs from Seattle and the cities of the Northwest, and shipments from the local markets have gone to those points. The recent cold weather has also reduced production.

Butter declined 2 cents yesterday, and sold for 64 cents on the exchange. This should reflect a retail price of from 68 to 70 cents.

Manager of the branch and N. W. McMillen is promoted from a teller to a post of assistant manager. A general banking business will be conducted, including commercial, savings and trust departments, and every facility will be as complete as at the main offices. The Citizens Trust has enjoyed a record-breaking growth during the past year, its deposits having increased 72 per cent., the total now being nearly $1,000,000.

Dividend Notice. The regular quarterly dividend of $2 per share of the directors of the Home Service Company on both first and second preferred stock, to be paid to the stockholders of record January 1. The company reports a successful year with 1920 prospects excellent.

The American Pig. The American pig is invading the market with a vengeance, advancing prices. Nearly $1,000,000 worth of him passed out of the United States in the calendar year 1919, and the quantity being over 2,500,000 pounds as against less than 1,000,000 pounds in the year before the war. Meantime, the prices which the people of the United States as well as of other parts of the world are paying for the great as immediately prior to the war. Our exportation of other meats shows a marked decline. The farm value of the average hog increased from $8 in 1912 to $22 in 1919, and the value of the pig increased from $600,000 in 1912 to $1,650,000,000 in 1919. Milk cows have increased in value about 95 per cent. in the same period. The United States has about 70 per cent. of the swine of the world. It is said in the market that so long as this great export demand continues there is little reason to anticipate any material cut in price to home consumers.

Canadians Good Sellers. Manager Martin of the bond department of the Security Trust and Savings reports a very active local distribution of Dominion of Canada 5 per cent. bonds. In fact, he says, his allotment was early exhausted, and a requisition made for an additional supply. These bonds are priced to net about 6.60 per

AS THE HOURS PASS THE COMING OF BABY DRAWS NEARER—ARE YOU PREPARED?

It is natural to think of the expectant mother's influence upon the unborn babe. Her food, her habits, her hygiene, and even the condition of her mind, all have a part in determining the well-being or ill-being of her infant before birth.

No one can be in doubt that the months which precede birth are of vast importance for the future of the child. It is therefore necessary that the expectant mother prepare herself. Mother's Friend gives comfort to expectant mothers by softening and making elastic the muscles during the anxious months before maternity.

THREE GENERATIONS

of mothers record the virtues of Mother's Friend for, not only alleviating distress in advance, but for assisting nature in ensuring a speedy recovery for the mother. It renders the abdominal muscles pliant as they readily yield to nature's demand for expansion. As a result, the nerves should not be drawn upon with that peculiar wrenching strain.

TELLS FAILURE OF SINGLE TAX.

Financial Savior of Ruined Town a Visitor Here.

Sole Boss of Canadian City Throttled by Evil Law.

Expects Rehabilitation to be Done in Two Years.

How a single tax law ruined a prosperous community of 20,000 souls, bankrupting its municipal government, stifling the schools and hitting hard at the pay of teachers and other city employees, was told yesterday by F. J. Gillespie, commissioner of the municipality of South Vancouver, the man who saved that town from the financial rocks. Mr. Gillespie is here for a short stay, after which he will resume his duties in the Canadian community.

Two years ago, he stated, the municipality of South Vancouver, operating under a single tax system, owed $7,500,000, and was unable to raise any part of it, falling behind at every assessment. The Dominion government, however, the police and placed Mr. Gillespie in charge of the town. With the title of commissioner, he took over the duties of the council, board of police, commission and the school board.

His first act was to abolish the single tax and levy an assessment on all buildings at a third of their valuation. His solution of the money trouble proved sound. He obtained funds that allowed the salaries of all municipal employees to be raised, a better school system to be inaugurated and other improvements to be made. A wave of prosperity immediately ensued. He said yesterday that he expects to have the town on a firm financial footing within two years, when he believes the former style of government may be resumed, but without the single tax.

Under the present regime at South Vancouver, the pay of teachers ranges from $1,200 to $1,800 a year. No high school teacher has a certificate works for less than $1,800. There are 600 students in the schools and new buildings are being planned for the coming year. The municipality contains 20,000 people. Most of the heads of families are workmen employed in Vancouver.

In 1918, before Mr. Gillespie was made commissioner, the revenue from taxes was $411,000. In 1919, with $440,000 from the sale of delinquent property.

BOLSHEVIK TURN TO DRAFT CASE.

According to the testimony of the government's witnesses, both the boys were then sent to the army to get across the line, for it is declared they were both arrested en route, was discharged from custody, and thereafter were successful in eluding the heads of families are workmen employed in Vancouver.

FILM DAMAGE TRAIL MUST GO TO FINISH.

NONSUIT REFUSED IN CASE OF WOMAN WHO FAILED TO GET PAT CONTRACT.

Judge Myers yesterday denied the motion of Attorney Willard Andrews, counsel for J. W. Early, director-general, and the Oakley Super-Quality Productions Company, for a nonsuit in the action brought by Mrs. Emma Johnson McAllister for $100 damages for alleged breach of contract. Mr. Andrews' argument went to show that the corporation was not liable.

Mr. Early took the stand and testified the first met Mrs. McAllister, then Miss Johnson, in Reno. He later renewed his acquaintance with her when she came to the studio of the company in response to an advertisement, seeking to become a star.

She produced in court a signed contract, saying she obtained it from a drawer in the office she had access in Mr. Early's desk. Mr. Early denied that he offered to pay her a salary ranging from $100 a week to $150 a week. He was on the stand when court adjourned.

SWAP AUTOS; CITY BUS LINES GETS LIGHT ONES.

Through a shift arranged by the City Council's Finance Committee yesterday, the park department will get two new automobile trucks, and two trucks now in use by the department, but considered too light for the work, will be transferred to the Commissioner of Motorbus Service, for use on the municipal bus line to Griffith Park and the municipal golf links. Patronage of the municipal bus line has increased more than 100 per cent. within the past four months, it is stated.

ASKING A THOUSAND FOR HUSBAND'S LOVE.

Valuing the lost love of her husband at $1,000, Mrs. Josephine Agnes Caffery, of El Monte, in a suit filed yesterday demanding that amount from Thomas and Patrick Caffery for having, she alleges, gained the confidence of her husband, Matt Caffery, and caused him to part with her with contempt, to shun her and to leave her without support.

FOR AUTO CAMP SITE.

A little progress was made yesterday toward the fitting up of a permanent automobile camp ground in Elysian Park, when the Finance Committee authorized Park Superintendent Sweeney to secure a right of way across certain private property for a sewer connection from the camp site, to Casanova street. All plans for the improvement of the camp ground have been made, and their start only awaits the proper appropriation from the Finance Committee.

DIRECTORY TO BE OUT MONDAY.

New List of Names, Addresses will be Largest Ever Issued in West.

The new Los Angeles city directory will be issued Monday, officials of the company said yesterday. Distribution will begin in the downtown district on that day and will not be completed before the end of the week. This directory is the largest ever issued in the West. It contains the name of every person in Los Angeles who is head of a family or is self-supporting. It also has the names and addresses of all returned soldiers. It lists all business houses, with their officials.

WINS HOUSE FIGHT.

Court Upholds Tenant Whose Landlord Tried to Eject Him.

Barney Kenodis of 1211 North Hoover avenue will be able to remain as tenant in the house at that address according to a decision yesterday of Justice Forbes. William A. Price brought suit to oust him, under an unlawful detainer action. The defendant, through Jack Greener, his attorney, showed that he had offered the rent to the landlord and that the plaintiff had refused to accept it or two registered letters containing a like sum. The court gave judgment in favor of the defendant, assessing costs of $2.85 against the plaintiff.

ON THE PLUMB PLAN.

Under the auspices of the Federated Shop Craft and the "Big Four" of railroad unions, a meeting will be held at 8 p.m. tonight in Eagle's Hall, 250 South Main street, for the purpose of organizing a Plumb Plan League.

NEW "FRIENDS" GET ROLL.

Although Joe Orestoff, a rancher of Downey, came to this city yesterday to buy some likely young heifers, he left Los Angeles last night without the cattle, minus his bank roll of $1000, and with an experience with a pair of bunco men as the result of his trip to the "big city."

When he arrived here Orestoff went to a bank at Seventh street and Central avenue and drew $1000. While in the bank he met a couple of men who engaged in conversation with him. When they learned that he had just come in from the country and had drawn $1000 they

EAGER TO TRY A NEW PRISON.

Seventh Term in California Pleases Veteran Bandit.

Admits He's "Stick-up" Man but Pays All His Bills.

Only Asks to be Freed Once More Before He Dies.

James Barker, 62 years old, who admits he held up the men in charge of two oil stations, has spent twenty-six years of his life in penitentiaries, according to a statement he made yesterday in Justice Hineshaw's court. The defendant admitted that he held up L. Carey, at 1227 South Main street, and L. H. Cheerer, at Ninth and Broadway. He asked that his preliminary hearing be waived and that he be committed at once to State's prison, but was informed that under the California law this can not be done.

"There isn't much chance for me," said Barker. "I have been in six penitentiaries and might as well try out California."

The defendant and Detective Bean gave a demonstration in court of the methods used in the robberies. Barker said he wanted to have his sentence start as soon as possible, but wanted to get out again before he died.

"I am an honest man, judge," he said. "I pay my board bill and don't own any laundry. Of course, I'm a stickup man. It was this way. I have painter's coils and when I get that way I have to have milk or alcohol, and when I take alcohol, which is most of the time, I feel like I want to hold up someone."

Barker was arraigned on charges of robbery and attempted robbery. His bail was fixed at $5000. His hearing was set for Tuesday.

He told him that he could have their room for the night. "Rooms are difficult to get here," one said. "We have a room for which we paid $1, but we found that we must leave and that we cannot use the room tonight. So you can have it without paying a cent." Orestoff went to their room in a little hotel around the corner with them. There all three, at a table conversing for a while. Then the pair left. Soon afterwards Joe decided to count his money to see if it was all there. He found that his roll consisted of a $1 bill carefully wrapped around a bunch of newspapers. Then he went up to Central station and told the police all about it.

FAIR-PRICE QUIZ ON TODAY.

Plans for an active campaign against the profiteers are expected to be made by the Federal Fair Price Committee at its first meeting at 3 p.m. today, at the Federal Building. A proposition is before that body to name a large committee to co-operate with it, but whether this will be made up of representatives of different lines of business affected by the investigation, or appointed from districts is unknown. The executive secretary has had his headquarters open at the Federal Building for two days, but has not received a single complaint. It was stated yesterday. When the matter of fixing the date for the trial of Nat Shapiro and A. Phillips, charged with profiteering in the war, was before Judge Trippett, yesterday, an effort was made to have the case set a month ahead, but Asst. U. S. Atty. Palmer, insisted that the trial date be fixed for January 20, and it was so ordered. Mr. Palmer said the authorities in Washington are anxious for quick action in prosecutions under the Lever law, for the good effect it may have on the community at large.

DRAFT NOTE FOR KAISER

Three Premiers in Turn Dutch Demand.

—The Dutch government has drafted a note for the extradition of the German Emperor. It will probably be sent Saturday. The note refers to article 237 of the treaty of Versailles and demands Holland to join the Allied forces in the accomplishment of the act.

Premiers Clemenceau, Lloyd George and Nitti this morning examined the text of the demand to be made upon Holland for the extradition of former Emperor William, according to Martin. The premiers also inspected the list of German officers whose surrender will be demanded from the Berlin government. This list is said to comprise approximately 600 names.

The Allied and associated powers today arraigned William, if of them, for a supreme offense against international morality and sanctity of treaties.

A special tribunal will be constituted to try the accused, thereby relieving him the guarantee, essential to the rights of defense, it is composed of five judges, one designated by each of the following powers: Great Britain, France, Italy, Japan, and the United States.

The German commissioners in the neutral territory has issued a proclamation announcing the transfer of power and associated powers, says Clemenceau ACCEPTS.
